WHAT IS A MISSION?

It's an opportunity to . . .

- † Renew our faith
- † Revive enthusiasm for God's Word
- † Praise God together in prayer and ritual
- † Bless the presence of grace in all of us as a Christian community
- † Experience God's forgiveness
- † Proclaim the Good News in and with the Christian community

We invite you to come together to explore your spirituality and deepen your faith this Lenten season.

Father Patrick Quinn entered the T.O.R. (Third Order Regular) Franciscans in 1975 and was ordained a priest in 1984. After ordination, he studied in Rome and later joined the Spiritual Formation department of the St. Paul Seminary. In 1989, he returned to his studies in Paris and in Rome. He came back to St. Paul and taught at the St. Paul Seminary School of Divinity the University of St. Thomas. He is currently director of the Lay Ministry Formation program for the Diocese of Orlando.

While in St. Paul, Father Quinn was a familiar face at St. Timothy's, as a visiting priest, often celebrating the Liturgy of the Word on the weekend.
